About CAE (Certificate in Advanced English)

CAE is an exam for advanced users of English. This exam is aimed at people who can use written and spoken English for most professional and social purposes. It is widely recognised for work or study purposes.

How do I know if this is the right exam for me?

Can you...

- use English in an effective way for business or study?
- use English confidently and flexibly?
- produce well-structured, clear pieces of writing on complex issues?

If you answered yes to the above, then CAE is the right exam for you.

What will CAE do for you?

There are a number of benefits to taking CAE:

- a CAE certificate is valid for life
- CAE is truly international, recognised around the world for business and study purposes
- hundreds of employers, universities and government departments officially recognise CAE as a qualification in advanced English
- passing CAE gives you the confidence to take on the Certificate of Proficiency in English (CPE).

What is the CAE test format?

The test is divided into five sections:

Reading - 75 minutes

Writing - 2 or 3 tasks , 120 minutes

English in Use - 6 tasks with 80 questions - 90 minutes

Listening - 45 minutes

Speaking - interview, normally with another candidate, 15 minutes

Next Exam Date: Saturday 25th September 2010

Students must register for the exam themselves
